

Our company was established by Mr. Celalettin SARAÇ who is one of the sector's doyens, in 1955. The first shotgun was produced by Celalettin SARAÇ under the brand name "CESA" in Düzce which is the centre of the firearms industry. Our company who produces the shotguns in the sector has put the best quality products at disposal of our customers with 55 years of experience from the start to today. Our company who has been operating in 3 generations for over half a century has over 50.000 still trouble-free running products till today in the domestic market.

FIAS ARMS which is the export brand of the company was established together with Mr. Fethi SARAÇ who is also one of the sector's doyens. Since then till today, thus our company who started working for abroad has become an exporter to so many countries in Europe.

Currently, exports are made to Germany in particular to many countries in Europe as FIAS-CESA under the leadership of

Mr. Fethi SARAÇ

. Our company whose products receive great acclaim in the domestic market as well as in the European market has also become a preferred brand in Europe. In this sense company in Turkish Arms Industry had the distinct honour of representing his country in the best possible way in the international market as well.

FIAS-CESA

FIAS-CESA Arms Industry which adopted quality and customer satisfaction as a way of life, always tries to keep customer satisfaction at the highest level by making production in accordance with Turkish and International Standards with his experience of over half a century, his technological work discipline based on continuous improvement.